

Capital Campaign Update

Commitment Weekend

Thank you for the generosity you have already shown. Holy Family Parish has now reached $4.65 million in gifts and pledges, with total resources of $7.15 million.

That means we are now very close to our goal of $7.5 million—and within reach of being able to move forward with confidence in building our new church.

What remains is important. The level of support we are able to demonstrate in these next few weeks will directly shape what we are able to build and how we move ahead.

April 11–12 will be our Commitment Weekend, and we ask that all pledge cards be returned by that time so that we can clearly understand the level of support across our parish.

If you have not yet responded, you are invited to do so in these coming days. If you are planning to give online, we still ask that you complete a pledge card. If you did not receive one, extras are available after Mass and at the parish office.

Even a modest pledge—or simply returning your card—helps us greatly as we take these next steps together.

Thank you again for your generosity, your prayers, and your commitment to the future of Holy Family Parish.

God bless,

Fr. Blessing
